CATHEDRAL, NELSON

SUNDAY 6 OCTOBER 2024

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time | Te Rātapu Rua Tekau mā whitu o He Wā Noa

Kia ora Cathedral Whanau,

Last week it was wonderful to celebrate the Pet Blessing service.

I'm always amazed how dogs know when to bark at the mention of "CAT", but were perfectly silent when we remembered pets who have gone or are sick.

This week we hit school holidays and I know for many of you this is a time for spending time with grandchildren or juggling work and family responsibilities. Over the next few weeks why not bring your children or grandchildren into the Cathedral and do the new Cathedral "Explorer Sheet" to learn all about the interesting facts about the Cathedral. This is a great activity – especially on a wet day.

Over the next 2 weeks, the choir is taking a well-earned break, and our services change to the non-choir format. But the choir will be keeping busy because during Labour Weekend, our choir will be joining the other Cathedral Choirs for a festival of Church music at Wellington Cathedral.

This will be a great opportunity to learn new music and have fun with other choristers, so we pray for their safe travel and the practices.

We return to the choral format on October 20 when we have our Celebration of the Sea: Trafalgar Day Service and are joined by a number of community groups such as the Iron Duke Sea Scouts and Sea Cadets from TS Talisman as well as RNZ Navy. This is always a colourful service with ensigns, colours, guidons, and flags taken up to the Communion Table.

On a personal note, Lee-ann and I will be trying to get to Marahau for a few days in our caravan and I will be back for Sunday. Hopefully the rain is not as heavy as expected, but a change of scenery is always nice.

Later in October we are heading to Featherston for our son's wedding during Labour Weekend which will be a great family occasion before they head off to Europe for their honeymoon/OE.

Blessings,

Graham

CHRIST TRIUMPHANT EVER REIGNING (CA104)

- 1 Christ triumphant, ever reigning,
Saviour, Master, King!
Lord of heaven, our lives sustaining,
hear us as we sing:
*Yours the glory and the crown,
the high renown, the eternal name!*
- 2 Word incarnate, truth revealing,
Son of Man on earth!
power and majesty concealing
by your humble birth:
*Yours the glory and the crown,
the high renown, the eternal name!*

3 Suffering servant, scorned, ill-treated,
victim crucified!
death is through the cross defeated,
Sinners justified:
Yours the glory and the crown,
the high renown, the eternal name!

4 Priestly king, enthroned for ever
high in heaven above!
sin and death and hell shall never stifle hymns of love:
Yours the glory and the crown,
the high renown, the eternal name!

5 So, our hearts and voices raising
through the ages long,
ceaselessly upon you gazing,
this shall be our song:
Yours the glory and the crown,
the high renown, the eternal name!

The Proclamation of the Word

The Old Testament Lesson

Psalm 110:1-4

Read by Dale Barry

¹ The LORD says to my lord, 'Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool.' ² The LORD sends out from Zion your mighty sceptre. Rule in the midst of your foes. ³ Your people will offer themselves willingly on the day you lead your forces on the holy mountains. From the womb of the morning, like dew, your youth will come to you. ⁴ The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind, 'You are a priest for ever according to the order of Melchizedek.'

The New Testament Lesson

Hebrews 1:1-4, 2:5-12

Read by Barbara Lane

¹Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, ²but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds.

³He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, ⁴having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

⁵Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. ⁶But someone has testified somewhere, 'What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them?

⁷You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honour, ⁸subjecting all things under their feet.' Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, ⁹but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. ¹⁰It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

¹¹For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, ¹²saying, 'I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.'

We stand to sing the Gradual Hymn

CHRIST, WHEN FOR US YOU WERE BAPTISED (CP92)

I Christ, when for us you were baptised God's Spirit on you came,
as peaceful as a dove, and yet
as urgent as a flame.

2 God called you his beloved Son,
called you his servant too;
his kingdom you were called to preach,
his holy will to do.

3 Straightway and steadfast until death
you then obeyed his call,
freely as Son of Man to serve,
and give your life for all.

4 Baptise us with your Spirit, Lord,
your cross on us be signed,
that likewise in God's service, we may perfect freedom find.

The Holy Gospel
John 1:29-34

Read by Reverend Murray Campbell

After the announcement

All sing Praise and glory to God

²⁹ The next day John saw Jesus coming towards him and declared,
'Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

³⁰ This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me." ³¹ I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.'

³² And John testified, 'I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. ³³ I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit."

³⁴ And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.'

Blessèd are you, most holy, in your Son, who washed his disciples' feet.
"I am among you," he said "as one who serves".

On that night before he died
he took bread and gave you thanks.
He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper, he took the cup,
and gave you thanks.
He gave it to them and said:
Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all,
to forgive sin;
do this to remember me.

Therefore with this bread and wine
we recall your goodness to us.

All God of the past and present,
we your people remember your Son.
We thank you for his cross and rising again,
we take courage from his ascension;

Notices and Blessing

Dean Graham

Please stand to sing our final Hymn

CROWN HIM WITH MANY CROWNS (CA137)

1 Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon his throne;
hark, how the heav'nly anthem drowns
all music but its own:
awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for thee,
and hail him as thy matchless King
through all eternity.

2 Crown him the Lord of love;
behold his hands and side,
rich wounds, yet visible above
in beauty glorified:
no angel in the sky
can fully bear that sight,
but downwards bends each burning eye
at mysteries so bright.

3 Crown him the Lord of peace,
whose pow'r a sceptre sways
from pole to pole, that wars may cease, absorbed in prayer and praise:
his reign shall know no end,
and round his piercèd feet fair flow'rs of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

4 Crown him the Lord of years,
the Potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
ineffably sublime.
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
for thou hast died for me;
thy praise shall never, never fail
throughout eternity.

Matthew Bridges / G.J. Elvey

Organ Voluntary

Marche Héroïque - Alfred Herbert Brewer

Sir Alfred Herbert Brewer (1865 - 1928) was an English composer and organist. As organist of Gloucester Cathedral from 1896 until his death, he contributed a good deal to the Three Choirs Festival for 30 years.

The greater part of his life was devoted to the advancement of the standards of ecclesiastical music. Some of his church music has been recorded on the Priory label. His Magnificat and Nunc dimittis in D major are in the standard repertoire of Anglican church music.

Readings for 5:30 pm service:

Ephesians 2:2-10

¹ You were dead through the trespasses and sins ² in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. ³ All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. ⁴ But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us ⁵ even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ— by grace you have been saved — ⁶ and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ⁷ so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness towards us in Christ Jesus. ⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God — ⁹ not the result of works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰ For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

Luke 11:5-13

⁵ And he said to them, ‘Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, “Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; ⁶ for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.” ⁷ And he answers from within, “Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.” ⁸ I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs. ⁹ ‘So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. ¹⁰ For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. ¹¹ Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? ¹² Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? ¹³ If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!’
