Sunday Bulletin

Sunday 24th September 2017
Pentecost 16

Welcome to Christ Church Cathedral. Children are welcome to our services.

There is a playpen for younger children and there are toys in the quiet room which is the room at the front of the Cathedral on the left hand side.

PLEASE FEEL FREE TO TAKE THIS PUBLICATION AWAY WITH YOU.

Dear Cathedralites

Righteous indignation is probably the phrase that sums up my reaction upon reading the well-known Gospel story of how the owner of a vineyard paid the same amount of money to the labourer who signed up at 6am and worked all day, as the one who signed up at 5pm and only worked for one hour. This parable has caused much angst among many theologians. In the end it is a reminder that God does what God does out of a sense of generosity. We may not like it, we will question it, we will disagree but God has the capacity to act.

To the end, Patsy and I had a lovely evening with John and Erin Hammond this week. John is only 59. He recently sold his business. John was my warden at St. Christopher's and helped grow the church to 700 people. John was told two weeks ago that he is riddled with cancer. Of course we laid hands on him and anointed him with oil and asked God to heal him. I continue to pray like that. In the end it is all up to God, aye. We just keep praying.

We wake up this morning with a new configuration of government. I say configuration because with MMP the minor parties end up playing the vital hand. I have always wondered whether MMP encourages 'the tail to wag the dog'.

Today at our 10am service we celebrate Friends of the Cathedral. I would like to pay tribute to Elizabeth McKee-Benbow who as we know has not been well at all during the last six months or more. She has played a stirring role in Friends of the Cathedral for many years. Thank you Elizabeth for what you have contributed. It is now a challenge for others to take up the mantle.

I had an interesting time in Napier last weekend attending the Installation Service of Ian Render who used to teach here at Nelson College. He was part of this Diocese. On the way back to the airport on Saturday night I discovered I had lost my wallet, but worse than that the flight back to Nelson was cancelled and there was no way of me getting back any time soon.

I finally arrived at 8.30 Sunday night. Thanks to all those who covered my absence so well. It emphasises again, doesn't it, that the only way to go is "TEAM."

Next Sunday at 10am bring your pets for our Pet Service. This is the time to invite folk to come to the Cathedral who would normally not be here. It will be a fun service, so come and bring many others with you.

I am delighted to tell that the Pilgrimage to the Holy Land in 2018 is now full. However with still eight months to go there may be occasional cancellation so you might want to add your name to the waiting list.

Aren't the magnolias in Nelson superb. I don't think I have been in any city with so many fantastic magnolias growing. Roll on spring and summer. Meanwhile have a great week. In his service.

Mike

ALIVE ALIVE

Alive, alive, alive for evermore,
My Jesus is alive, alive for evermore
Alive, alive, alive for evermore,
My Jesus is alive for evermore.
Sing alleluia, sing alleluia,
My Jesus is alive for evermore.
Sing alleluia, sing alleluia,
My Jesus is alive.

"O Praise The Name (Anástasis)"

I cast my mind to Calvary
Where Jesus bled and died for me.
I see His wounds, His hands, His feet.
My Saviour on that cursed tree

His body bound and drenched in tears
They laid Him down in Joseph's tomb.
The entrance sealed by heavy stone
Messiah still and all alone

O praise the name of the Lord our God
O praise His name forever more
For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord, oh Lord our God

And then on the third at break of dawn,
The Son of heaven rose again.
O trampled death where is your sting?
The angels roar for Christ the King

O praise the name of the Lord our God
O praise His name forever more
For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord, oh Lord our God

He shall return in robes of white,
The blazing Son shall pierce the night.
And I will rise among the saints,
My gaze transfixed on Jesus' face

O praise the name of the Lord our God
O praise His name forever more
For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord, oh Lord our God x 3

Let Everything that has Breath

Sing to the Lord all you his people
Sing a new song
Sing to the Lord lift up his name
Day after day
The heavens declare his righteousness
The earth will see his glory
For great is the Lord and he is worthy Worthy to be praised

Chorus

Let everything that has breath
Now - praise Him, praise Him
Let everything that has breath
Now- praise Him (repeat)

Bridge

For he is worthy, worthy, (Echo) worthy, worthy
He is holy, holy (Echo) holy, holy
He is God Almighty
We will praise Him (repeat)

Lord Reign in Me

Over all the Earth , You reign on high
Every mountain stream, ev'ry sunset sky
But my one request
Lord, my only aim
Is that You'd reign in me again.

CHORUS

Lord, reign in me, reign in your pow'r
Over all my dreams,
In my darkest hour
You are the Lord of all I am
So won't you reign in me again.

V.2

Over ev'ry thought, over ev'ry word,
May my life reflect the beauty of my Lord Cause you mean more to me than any earthly thing,
So won't you reign in me again.

1
O for a thousand tongues to sing
my dear Redeemer's praise,
the glories of my God and King,
the triumphs of his grace!

2
Jesus! the name that charms our fears, that bids our sorrows cease;
'tis music in the sinner's ears,
'tis life and health and peace.

3
He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
he sets the prisoner free;
his blood can make the foulest clean;
his blood availed for me.

4
He speaks; and, listening to his voice, new life the dead receive,
the mournful broken hearts rejoice,
the humble poor believe.

5
Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb, your loosened tongues employ;
ye blind, behold your Saviour come;
and leap, ye lame, for joy!

6
My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim and spread through all the earth abroad
the honours of thy name.

Pray for music and musicians

Eternal Lord God, source of all beauty and harmony, we praise you for the gift of music: for the inspiration given to those who compose it, for the skill and devotion of those who perform it, for the faculties and powers which enable us to enjoy it; and we pray that as by this gift our lives are enriched and renewed, so we may glorify you in a fuller dedication of ourselves.

Guide the team charged to lead the music in our Cathedral giving thanks for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

St. Barnabas Prayer

Barnabas Fund's Project Joseph continues to bring food aid to starving Christians in East Africa, working through local churches. Pray for wisdom, strength and protection for all involved in purchasing and distributing the maize, beans, cooking oil and other items. The World Food Programme has halved the ration it distributes to Uganda and Kenya. Barnabas Fund is helping to cover the difference.

Godwits – the Cathedral bells will be rung at 11.30am on Wednesday 27th September to mark the arrival of the godwits. At this time of year, up in Arctic Circle, these small birds, Kuaka or bar-tailed Godwits, are preparing to leave on their flight to places in NZ. Godwits were voted New Zealand's bird of the year in 2015. They are champions of migration, flying 11,000 ks non-stop over about 9 days. Many come to our Nelson region, particularly to the Motueka sand spit and Farewell Spit, and we may see a few on Tahunanui beach. On their long-distance flight they have no rests, no drinks or snacks! Most other birds that migrate long distances make stop-overs. The courageous Godwits arriving in our region are welcomed each year by ringing of the cathedral bells, a reminder for us to respect and care for the wonders of nature, especially in this uncertain time of climate change.

Readings
8 and 10am
Exodus 16: 11-15

The LORD spoke to Moses and said, 'I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, "At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.'" In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, 'What is it?' For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, 'It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.

Psalm 145 vv 1-8

I will exalt you, O God my king :
I will bless your name for ever
and ever.
Every day will I bless you :
and praise your name for ever
and ever.
Great is the Lord, and wonderfully worthy to be praised :
his greatness is past searching out.
One generation shall praise your works to another :
and declare your mighty acts.
As for me,
I will be talking of the glorious splendour of your majesty :

I will tell the story of your marvellous works.
Men shall recount the power of your terrible deeds :
and I will proclaim your greatness.
Their lips shall flow with the remembrance of your abundant goodness :
they shall shout for joy at your righteousness.
The Lord is gracious and compassionate :
slow to anger and of great goodness.

Philippians 1: 21-30

For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labour for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well— since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

St. Matthew 20: 1-16

The Labourers in the Vineyard 20 'For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. ² After agreeing with the labourers for the usual daily wage,^[a] he sent them into his vineyard. ³ When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the market-place; ⁴ and he said to them, "You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right." So they went. ⁵ When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. ⁶ And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, "Why are you standing here idle all day?" ⁷ They said to him, "Because no one has hired us." He said to them, "You also go into the vineyard." ⁸ When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, "Call the labourers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first." ⁹ When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage.^[b] ¹⁰ Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage.^[c] ¹¹ And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, ¹² saying, "These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat."

¹³ But he replied to one of them, "Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage?"^[d] ¹⁴ Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. ¹⁵ Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?"^[e] ¹⁶ So the last will be first, and the first will be last.'^[f]

Psalm 119 vv

PSALM 119.121-128

Feci iudicium

I have done that which is lawful and right:
O give me not over unto mine oppressors.
122 Be thou surety for thy servant's good:
O let not arrogant men oppress me.
123 Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy deliverance: and for the word of thy righteousness.
124 O deal with thy servant according to thy loving mercy : and teach me thy statutes.
125 I am thy servant, O grant me understanding : that I may know thy testimonies.
126 It is time to awake and be stern thyself, O Lord; because they have made thy law of non account.
127 For I love thy commandments : above all things: more than gold, yea more than fine gold.

128 Therefore I walk uprightly according to all thy precepts; and all false ways I utterly abhor.

Ezekiel 34: 1-10

Israel's False Shepherds

The word of the LORD came to me: Mortal, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel: prophesy, and say to them to the shepherds: Thus says the Lord GOD: Ah, you shepherds of Israel who have been feeding yourselves! Should not shepherds feed the sheep? You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep. You have not strengthened the weak, you have not healed the sick, you have not bound up the injured, you have not brought back the strayed, you have not sought the lost, but with force and harshness you have ruled them. So they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and scattered, they became food for all the wild animals. ⁶ My sheep were scattered, they wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill; my sheep were scattered over all the face of the earth, with no one to search or seek for them. Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: As I live, says the Lord GOD, because my sheep have become a prey, and my sheep have become food for all the wild animals, since there was no shepherd; and because my shepherds have not searched for my sheep, but the shepherds have fed themselves, and have not fed my sheep; therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: Thus says the Lord GOD, I am against the shepherds; and I will demand my sheep at their hand, and put a stop to their feeding the sheep; no longer shall the shepherds feed themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, so that they may not be food for them.

St. Matthew 18: 21-35

Forgiveness

²¹ Then Peter came and said to him, 'Lord, if another member of the church^[a] sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?' ²² Jesus said to him, 'Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven^[b] times.'

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

²³ 'For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. ²⁴ When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents^[c] was brought to him; ²⁵ and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. ²⁶ So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything." ²⁷ And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. ²⁸ But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow-slaves who owed him a hundred denarii;^[d] and seizing him by the throat, he said, "Pay what you owe." ²⁹ Then his fellow-slave fell down and pleaded with him, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you." ³⁰ But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he should pay the debt. ³¹ When his fellow-slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. ³² Then his lord summoned him and said to him, "You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. ³³ Should you not have had mercy on your fellow-slave, as I had mercy on you?" ³⁴ And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he should pay his entire debt. ³⁵ So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister^[e] from your heart.'
