

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL, NELSON

Sunday Bulletin – 20th October 2019- 18th Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome to Christ Church Cathedral, Nelson. Children are welcome at our services.

There are toys in the Quiet Room. Please feel free to take this publication away with you.

Dear Cathedralites

It is a big day this Sabbath. Yes, at 8 am we have our 1662 Communion service, 5.30 pm Choral Evensong, 7 pm Word and Worship. We also have an amazing service at 10 am.

Firstly, it is Trafalgar Sunday service and we welcome from the Royal New Zealand Navy, Captain Clive Holmes and Commander Cathy Knight. From the Merchant Marines, we welcome Captain Murray Lister. Also, we welcome the Sea Cadets, and the Sea Scouts, bringing their Jellicoe banner for the best unit. We welcome supporting family members and friends. Trafalgar Sunday is so important in Nelson. Isn't it wonderful that our Cathedral is at the top of Pikimai Hill in the middle of Trafalgar Street North and South.

We welcome Charlie Unwin and others involved in the Arts Festival of Nelson. We will hear in the sermon the amazing track record that the Nelson Arts festival has attained. Also today we have the McVicar whanau as they come to acknowledge the life and the death of a much loved mum, grandmother, auntie and friend. The late Noel and Duncan McVicar lived for some time in Nelson. So, today's service will be an incredible mixture of sad and happy memories, and poignant with some colour and creativity.

What a fantastic job our Children's worker did in welcoming over 40 children each day to our Cathedral holiday program. Well done to John Laing and his team of helpers!

Thanks to Lesley Bandy, a cathedralite, who has a growing national and international reputation as a choreographer, whose creativity you will see this morning following the sermon.

Congratulations to Mayor Rachel Reese, elected for a third term. We are so glad that she can be at today's service. We will continue to uphold Mayor Rachel and her council in our prayers.

Father Steve and Karen are particularly glad that their friends the Reverend Canon Richard Thornley and Jill are spending time with them in God's own country, and are here this morning.

It was wonderful to have Bishop Steve at our vestry meeting last Tuesday evening. And then he popped in again on Wednesday lunchtime when the staff team was having a 1day planning retreat at Father Steve and Karen's place.

It was shocking news for our vestry member David Wallace. His sister was killed in an accident this week. We remember David and Karel in our prayers.

Don't forget the incredible Light Festival here on Piki Mai on Friday from 7 pm – 8 pm where we will have a spectacular extravaganza thanks to Charlie and his Arts Festival planning whanau. May this cause us to rejoice in God's creativity expressed through the many artists in our community.

Next Festival weekend is a biggie as well. On Saturday at 4 pm we have a wedding. Remember Sunday is Suffering Church Sunday and we remember the horrific pressure many Christians face in countries hostile to Christianity. After the 10 am Cathedral service, we will be having a sausage sizzle. Bring your two dollars and I will guarantee you plenty of tomato sauce! It may be that we look at having a regular sausage sizzle in January to help placate the hunger of tourists!

For most of this week Patsy and I will be taking a mini holiday hoping to pull our old caravan up the hills and over to the Marlborough Sounds somewhere.

An excited Bev Grieg told me that she has just had the 50th Christmas tree entrant for our Christmas tree festival. A magnificent effort.

Meanwhile, we ride high with the Tasman Makos as they hopefully clean up the rugby competition in New Zealand and the All Blacks as they continue to hopefully retain the rugby World Cup. In many ways it is an exciting time all around.

Let us never cease to give thanks for life, for whanau and for God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit whom without we will have nothing. Have a grand week.

In His service, Mike

NEXT SUNDAY 27th October after the 10 am service

we will be having a Cathedral sausage sizzle. Come join in the fellowship and have lunch together.

Suggested donation $2.00

The Sentence and Collect for the 18th Sunday after Pentecost

Sentence “All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness.” 2 Timothy 3:16

Collect Almighty God, Your word is a lamp for our feet and a light upon our path; grant that by patient study of the Scriptures we may follow more closely the way that you set before us, through Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen.

Genesis 32:22-31 (8 am only)

²²The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. ²³He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. ²⁴Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. ²⁵When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. ²⁶Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." ²⁷So he said to him,

Jeremiah 31:27-34 (10 am only)

²⁷The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of humans and the seed of animals. ²⁸And just as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the LORD. ²⁹In those days they shall no longer say: "The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge." ³⁰But all shall die for their own sins; the teeth of everyone who eats sour grapes shall be set on edge. ³¹The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ³²It will not be

"What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." ²⁸Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." ²⁹Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. ³⁰So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." ³¹The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. ³³But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ³⁴No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the LORD," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

it, ¹⁵and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, ¹⁷so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work. ⁴¹ In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: ²proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. ³For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, ⁴and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. ⁵As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

Luke 18:1-8 (8 + 10am)

¹Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. ²He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. ³In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' ⁴For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, ⁵yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" ⁶And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. ⁷And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? ⁸I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Psalm 149

- 1 O praise the Lord * and sing to the Lord a | new | song:
O praise him in the as|sembly | of the | faithful.
- 2 Let Israel rejoice in | him that | made him:
let the children of Zion be | joyful | in their | king.
- 3 Let them praise him | in the | dance:
let them sing his praise with | timbrel | and with | harp.

he adorns the | meek with | his sal|vation.

let them sing for | joy up|on their | beds.

Nehemiah 8:9-18

⁹And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. ¹⁰Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our LORD; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength." ¹¹So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, "Be quiet, for this day is holy; do not be grieved." ¹²And all the people went their way to eat and drink and to send portions and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words that were declared to them. ¹³On the second day the heads of ancestral houses of all the people, with the priests and the Levites, came together to the scribe Ezra in order to study the words of the law. ¹⁴And they found it written in the law, which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the people of Israel should live in booths during the festival of the seventh month, ¹⁵and that they

John 16:1-11 ¹ "I have said these things to you to keep you from stumbling. ²They will put you out of the synagogues. Indeed, an hour is coming when those who kill you will think that by doing so they are offering worship to God. ³And they will do this because they have not known the Father or me. ⁴But I have said these things to you so that when their hour comes you may remember that I told you about them. "I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of should publish and proclaim in all their towns and in Jerusalem as follows, "Go out to the hills and bring branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make booths, as it is written." ¹⁶So the people went out and brought them, and made booths for themselves, each on the roofs of their houses, and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at the Water Gate and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷And all the assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in them; for from the days of Jeshua son of Nun to that day the people of Israel had not done so. And there was very great rejoicing. ¹⁸And day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read from the book of the law of God. They kept the festival seven days; and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

you asks me, 'Where are you going?' ⁶But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. ⁷Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: ⁹about sin, because they do not believe in me; ¹⁰about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; ¹¹about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

NELSON GOSPEL DAY

You are invited to Nelson Gospel Day on 14th December. Volunteers from all over the Top of the South are going to read the New Testament non-stop from beginning to end at the Cathedral steps.

This is a tremendous chance to:

- Share the real Christmas message in its proper context, which is the whole New Testament!
- Spread the Good News the way it was shared before the New Testament existed, as recorded in Acts!
- Use the freedom to share God's Word while we have it, as Christians around the world would love to be able to do!

The entire New Testament takes about 20-24 hours to read and people will do 15 minute readings so we will need 80 - 100 readers.

Book a time today and let your friends know!

WELCOMERS FOR CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL

Chris Fitchett is organising the roster for volunteer welcomers during the Christmas Tree Festival. If you are able to take part, could you please write your name on the draft roster in the quiet room, on the days and times that you are able to help. Ideally, we would like to have two welcomers rostered for each time spot, but that may not be feasible, and so the first priority is to have at least one welcomer on at all times. If you are able to help could you please also email Chris with your email address so that he can contact you if necessary, and to send out a finalised copy of the roster for your information. If you do not have email, could you please give him your phone number.

ONE SOLITARY LIFE

Here is a man who was born of Jewish parents in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another obscure village. He worked in a carpenter shop until He was thirty, and then for three years He was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never owned a home. He never had a family. He never went to college. He never put His foot inside a big city. He never travelled two hundred miles from the place where He was born. He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness. He had no credential but Himself. He had nothing to do with this world except the naked power of His divine manhood. While still a young man, the tide of popular opinion turned against Him. His friends ran away. One of them, Peter, denied Him. He was turned over to His enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. While He was dying His executioners gambled for the only piece of property He had on earth – and that was His coat. When He was dead He was taken down and laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend. Nineteen wide centuries have come and gone and today He is the centerpiece of the human race and the leader of the column of progress. I am far within the mark when I say that all the armies that ever marched, and all the boats that ever were sailed, and all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned, put together have not affected the life upon this earth as powerfully as has that One Solitary Life ...

ST BARNABAS PRAYER 20th October

Lord Jesus Christ, we remember how You warned Your followers that they would be persecuted, just as You were. We know that at least one in ten of those who are called by Your Name today are living in situations where marginalisation, discrimination, harassment, violence, torture, imprisonment or even death are an everyday possibility. We ask that You will wonderfully enable them to glory in their sufferings, as did the apostle Paul. May their suffering produce perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope so that You are glorified. (John 15:20; Romans 5:3-4) Amen.
